The Presidential Museum is one of the few museums in the country dedicated solely to the office of the President. Permanent exhibitions include the Dishong collection of First Lady miniature dolls, campaign trivia, historical documents, and the Leadership Library of the Presidents. Also on site is the former home of two Presidents, George H.W. Bush and George W. Bush. Tuesday- Saturday: 10AM-5PM. Admission charged. A gift shop is located in the museum. 4919 E. University (432) 363-7737. Admission charged.

Through its collections, exhibits, publications, educational and entertaining programs, it offers insights into democracy and its offices for all to understand.

Teaching leadership in a changing world, The Presidential Museum is dedicated to teaching cultural values: 1) respect and appreciation for American ideals, 2) tolerance and kindness, 3) repudiating for all time violence and hate.
