Patty Missal is a Director at Aurora Management Partners, joining the firm in 2009. Ms. Missal has over twenty years of professional experience, specializing in interim management, forensic and financial advisory services, and restructuring services. Some of her recent engagements include:

- Providing due diligence on a potential acquisition for a large private equity fund.
- Chief Operating Officer for a consumer products company.
- Providing valuation services in assessing the Total Enterprise Value for Calpine Corporation, a California-based energy company.
- Providing forensic services to an IL-based bariatric hospital.
- Providing an expert report as to operational and execution risks in a proposed $1.7 billion retail merger.
- Providing forensic services to the Creditors Committee for Salander O'Reilly Art Gallery.
- Providing a solvency opinion and valuation report for a financial guaranty insurance company with $6.3 billion in assets.

Prior to joining Aurora, Ms. Missal served as Principal for Bridge Associates, LLC. Prior to joining Bridge, Ms. Missal served as Principal for Newmarket Partners, LLC., where she provided services as Chief Restructuring Officer, worked as advisor on several sale engagements (both in and out of bankruptcy settings), and performed forensic accounting and investigation services. Ms. Missal has experience with a variety of industries, including construction, manufacturing, healthcare, energy, distribution and software.

Prior to joining Newmarket Partners, Ms. Missal worked for four years as CFO with Yen Enterprises, Inc., a $40 million family of companies specializing in steel components and manufacturing. Ms. Missal was primarily responsible for overseeing day-to-day financial matters and bank relations and negotiations. She also developed and implemented a turn-around plan with vendors and lenders, allowing production of goods and company operations to continue for a period of nearly three years.

Ms. Missal is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, and International Women's Insolvency and Restructuring Confederation.

She received her Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Ashland University and a Masters of Business Administration from Cleveland State University.
