JAMISON SHAW

advanced hairdressing systems, inc.

Americanizing the revolutionary art of the French Cutting and Balyage Highlighting. Our courses offer you a comprehensive, exciting, and easily learnable training system for you and your staff.

For over ten years, JSAHS has lead our industry in advanced education. Our courses range from classes in your salon with as few as six students to international audiences of several hundred. Whether an intimate class setting in our academy or in your salon, or a large scale hair show, our courses deliver down to earth practical knowledge and useful information that you and your staff can immediately put to use "behind the chair" to increase income.

Classes are held in our academy in Atlanta, or as arranged in your salon. Our student-teacher ratio is among the best in the industry and ensures that every student receives ample personal supervision. Our state-of-the-art training facility uses the latest teaching techniques. Every student receives bound course materials and a diploma that is suitable for framing. All students work is done on live models and student lunches are provided. Videos and specialty tools are available for purchase.
