NOW!

Matt. 11:12 says, "From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it."

God is raising up a generation of students all across our country who are standing up and saying we will live our lives with passion and purpose. We will not be silent spectators; we will not take a defensive posture. We will be on the offensive. And we'll do it Now!

There is nothing remotely passive about following Christ! Join us on January 23rd & 24th as Hot Hearts '09 stands to challenge students to courageously compete for the Kingdom. Messages that convey uncompromising truth and dynamic worship that will register on God's Richter Scale are just a part of this weekend. Don't miss it for the world.

RED

As contemporary Christian rock continues to push boundaries of what a band can say with its music, bands like Red are on the forefront. Having personally dealt with tragedy, regrets, addiction, and a litany of past mistakes, Red looks real issues right between the eyes on End of Silence and refuses to blink. Guitarist Jasen Rauch hopes his past difficulties can have a positive impact on listeners. He wants to remind everyone that, No matter where you've been, the end game of salvation is still the same.

"People are hitting on subjects that are deeper and darker," Armstrong says. "I think it's just a sign of Christian music evolving. But at the end of the day, no matter what the message is wrapped in, the music is still about redemption. How people got out of their struggles and into their relationship with God."

SUPERCHICK

Superchick is living up to its name. Its first four albums have combined sold over 700,000 copies and have had 5 #1 singles. But for a band inspired to empower its listeners, its new album

"Rock What You Got" does more than walk the talk... it rocks the talk! Superchick has a "rock-o-tronic" sound - an electropunk mash-up of slashing guitars, pulsing keyboards and grit-pop vocals.

"This band is about empowerment and hope," says Matt. "Don't be afraid to cross the lines that people put up to limit you when you know you are better than that."

AARON IVEY (FORMERLY SPUR 58) WORSHIP

Former lead of SPUR58, Aaron Ivey begins a new season as he invests in the local church. Aaron has been touring for the last seven years with his friends in SPUR58, and has a heart to see a devoted generation worshipping God with their whole lives. In August of 2008, band mates Jimmie and

Bush moved to Austin, Texas, where Aaron now serves as one of the worship pastors of The Austin Stone

Community Church. Aaron and his band continue to tour and lead the church worldwide in a passionate pursuit of God, as they seek to live their lives wholly surrendered to God.
