Big House Texas Covenant of Conduct

BIG HOUSE TEXAS is for those willing to do plain, honest sweaty, awesome work to help others! Few rules are needed since participants join with common goals of work, service and Christian fellowship. The rules are to enhance the work camp experience and to continue the reputation of BIG HOUSE as a caring, effective and responsible group of people.

It is impossible to cover every rule of safety and appropriate behavior, but the rules listed below are a few of the most basic ones necessary for a safe, enriching experience:

1. Conduct will be appropriate for a church activity.
2. Participants will conduct themselves in a thoughtful and safe manner at all times.
3. Participants will follow the directions of the camp leadership; insubordination won't be tolerated by youth or adults. The Camp Director on advisement by the Executive Director has the authority to do what he/she deems necessary.
4. Possession or consumption of alcohol, illegal drugs, tobacco, or weapons is strictly prohibited.
5. No one may enter the dorm area of the opposite sex.
6. Everyone participates in all events. Adults included!
7. Radios, CD players, MP 3's, DVD's game boys, Cell phones (FOR YOUTH) etc. are not allowed. No music will be allowed on the worksite. BIG HOUSE TEXAS will not replace any lost or stolen items.
8. Refer to the page on dress code. No one may wear clothes that might be objectionable. The Camp Director has the discretion to do what is necessary in dealing with inappropriate clothing.
9. No one may leave the base camp at anytime during camp unless authorized by the Camp Director to do so.
10. No youth or adult may arrive at camp late or leave camp early. This takes away from the camp experience.
11. No paint fights – painting yourself or others!

Vehicle Rules are as follows:

- A. No youth participant may ride as a passenger in a vehicle driven by anyone under the age of 21 during camp except as stipulated in emergency procedures.
- B. No one may ride in the back of a truck or trailer. All people must ride inside the vehicles with seat belts buckled at all times.
- C. All safe driving procedures must be observed and drivers must have current drivers license and insurance.
- D. NO YOUTH participant may drive a vehicle during camp.

BIG HOUSE TEXAS reserves the right to determine any inappropriate behavior and to send a participant home in disciplinary cases!
