

The Big Walnut Country Club was located in Gahanna, Ohio from the 1920s through the 1950s.

If you live in Gahanna today, you now know that land as Friendship Park

Many of us love Friendship Park, but few people remember the club that was there before it.

DO YOU?

If so, please help the Gahanna Historical Society uncover the history of this club, its founders, activities, and events.
