ABOUT LAMB STUDIOS

Lamb Theatricals LLC was established by Michael Lamb in 2007. The mission of Lamb Theatricals is to educate, entertain, and inspire its participants and audiences as well as to promote the wellbeing of adults and children through theatrical productions. We offer private instruction, coaching, talent evaluation assessments, and consulting with professional instructors through Lamb Studios as well as weekly audition postings and notices throughout New England on Audition Central.

We also offer a variety of talent development programs through our partner company, Performing Arts Programs, Inc. Some of the programs offered include acting classes, musical theater classes, dance classes, and specialty vacation and summer programs at many venues throughout New England. Many of our students have been featured on Broadway and in national tours, regional theatres, and local productions. Even though we have the experience and knowledge to guide the more advanced student, our true passion is to help, guide, and instruct the beginner.

OUR SERVICES

Beginner or professional, Lamb Studios offers a variety of services to suit your needs and schedule.

PRIVATE LESSONS

Master the techniques of singing and acting with one-on-one private instruction

30-minute weekly lessons running for a six-week session (plus one makeup lesson in case of absence). Lessons are designed for performers of all ages and are tailored to each individual's skill level. Learn the techniques of singing and/or acting by building musical repertoire, vocal technique, monologue work, and character development.

SINGING Vocal warm-ups and strengthening exercises, expansion of vocal range. Other topics include: breath control, training the ear, diction, rhythm, and basic music theory.

ACTING Monologue intensive, concentration work, sense memory, acting while singing, performance technique, full-body physicality, character development.

PRIVATE COACHING

Big audition coming up? From local to Broadway, make sure you are prepared!

Schedule one to five coachings at one time. Forty-five minute sessions offer a flexible alternative to regular weekly lessons. You can choose to schedule coachings on an as-needed basis to prepare for auditions and to supplement rehearsals. Coachings make it easier to work around a busy schedule that doesn't allow for regular weekly lessons.

TALENT EVALUATION ASSESSMENTS

Do you know what steps you or your child should take to develop the skills needed to get to the next level?

A unique service offering professional, knowledgeable guidance about what steps to take in order to grow as an artist. Save money by avoiding running in all the wrong directions and receive a careful, affirming, and honest opinion about your or your child's talent.

The TEA includes a 10-minute pre-evaluation meeting, a 30- to 40-minute evaluation of singing and/or acting talent and skills assessment, and a 10-minute wrapup. A written talent evaluation/assessment will be emailed via PDF within 72 hours.

CAREER CONSULTATIONS

Receive guidance on your or your child's performing arts career

Ongoing advice, opinions, and suggestions about your or your child's creative development and the steps that you should take to further your talents. This is ideal if you or your child auditions locally and/or in New York City.

We offer encouragement, professional expertise, and guidance in performing arts talent development for both the amateur and professional child or adult.
